Jo Selects . . .

For this year I wish you a year of personal happiness. May we all give our best efforts to that end.

I am sending you this catalog knowing you will find it the best list from which to purchase your aquatic requirements.

You can rely on the catalog descriptions. They are truthful and accurate and as you turn the pages you will be surprised, if you are a good water gardener, at the comparatively low PREPAIR PRICES.

There are numerous plants for Pools—hundreds of them. But when I list them in this catalog you may be assured they are good, and you may depend on whatever you select to be the best at the prices you want to pay.

On my personal selections of Plants this year, I have featured, because I sincerely believe it to be the finest and the plant that is most admired by all our customers—The Chinese Double Flowering Lotus. You can grow this plant in a tub if you desire. It will grow and bloom in a tub, but do not expect the same plant and bloom as the young lady is holding. This Lotus was grown in a discarded mortar box sunk in the ground.

This plant should be your No. 1 selection for this season.

My next selection will be divided between several lilies, each outstanding in its own color or kind. Your selection will be based on personal desire in a certain color or shape. If I were purchasing for my pool one lily I would select from the following and the reason—

BLUE BEAUTY—Immense blooms, free blooming and gorgeous coloring (described on page 8).

H. C. HAARTSTICK—Night Blooming, brilliant red color, very attractive (described on page 8).

GLORIOSA—Red lily, free blooming, easy to grow (described on page 4).

Another water lily I like is SUNRISE (pictured on back cover).

It is the personal desire of anyone interested in some particular pleasure, to own something to try-out, something new! In the water world two new plants have attracted my attention, and I have tested them, and they are excellent.

Illustrates the beauty of the blooms of the Chinese Lotus.

THE WATER CHESTNUT—Roots grow submerged in about ten inches of water with its leaves floating on the surface of the water, forming intricate designs as they cling together; then it sends out long runners to other colony plants, thus making several separate plants in one. An excellent plant for tub culture. Cost of this plant is low. Only.....35c each

CELLOPHANE PLANT—A sensationally new plant for shallow water; has numerous white flowers, easy to grow, free flowering. Underwater its leaves grow in long spearlike leaves, broadening as they come to the surface of the water to a wide palm-shaped fan leaf. Very attractive green color—outstanding even among other all-green plants. Costs.....25c

A SAVING - for You

This year we were confronted with this problem—"Continue color pictures in our catalog and advance prices—or Continue present prices by eliminating color."

This was our problem—and we have decided to discard color this year, realizing that this is a saving we can pass on to you.

We have always believed that our customers are deserving of any benefits of low prices and we, by the elimination of color in our catalog, can pass on this saving to our customers.

Our same PREPAID PRICES on quality merchandise is maintained—plus the service for which we have long been acclaimed.

The standard "a satisfied customer" has long been sacred with us.

To our old customers, we sincerely appreciate the business you have given us in the past, and assure you of our continued efforts to please you.

To our new customers—you can order with the assurance that you will get PLANTS FOR POOLS which are the finest grown.

Hardy Water Lilies

YOU will particularly enjoy these varieties. The Lilies listed below have been selected because they combine the qualities of prolific bloomers and sturdy growth as well as lovely flowers. The flowers include all the colors: rich reds, beautiful whites, shell pinks to deep rose, yellow and orange. Some of them have blooms eight inches across. All of them are hardy and adapted to planting and growing conditions in your garden pool. Their only requirements are sunlight, water and rich soil.

GONNERE. The greatest and finest of White Lilies. Each blossom is a perfect globe. This variety is double clear to the center. Snowy whiteness of color. In our opinion it is one of the most attractive Lilies in our garden. $1.95 each.

SUNRISE. The biggest and best of them all. Looks like huge yellow suns floating among leaves that are beautifully marked with brown spots. The flowers are graceful in form, of glorious canary color. A lily that should be in every water garden. $1.95 each.

NEPTUNE. The feature of this rare variety is the color of its blooms—imagine a deep pink flushed with smoky red at the base, then becoming lighter until the tips of the petals are almost white. Visitors to our gardens have wondered at the large amount of blooms coming from the plants. Try it for something that is different. $1.95 each.

Gonnerre—large double white flowers

PLANNING A NEW POOL THIS SEASON — REMEMBER

A naturalistic or informal pool will better fit into the general landscape scheme of your garden if it follows nature as closely as possible, the background and margin always being of utmost importance.

The formal-shaped pool will conform to your general scheme of the garden if simple and plain.

And above all else—plan your pool where it will receive full sunlight.

There is nothing that declares such extravagant dividends on so small an investment as a Water Garden.

The greatest attraction of the pool are the water plants. Plan for them when planning your pool.

Immense Blooms Gorgeous Colors

Long erect stems bear their large flowers above the water level. Some varieties bloom at night. The size of the bloom depends upon the amount of soil and leaf spread available for each plant. Give them a chance and they will repay you.

WITH THESE WATER PLANTS

HERE are grouped those plants which grow in the water. They are varied and interesting, and give the much desired natural effect to the pool. They are easily grown. Most of them do best in shallow water and so the pots, boxes, or tubs should be raised to within two to eight inches of the surface.

There are wonderful possibilities with Water Plants to give your pool a unique and tropical appearance. Try a collection of Taro, Umbrella Palm, Papyrus and Primrose Willow, grouped together in a corner of the pool or in the center, or a collection of Primrose Willow, Parrot Feather and Forget-Me-Nots in a shallow corner of the pool.

For a natural pool use plenty of Japanese Iris planted right at the edge or in one to three inches of water. Our sturdy, healthy plants reach you ready to grow. If you have ever planted aquatics before you know the value of starting with good plants.

§WATER LETTUCE. Rosettes of beautiful iridescent green leaves; paler and with grayish tones- forming a lovely contrast to the Water Hyacinth when they are grown together. 2 for 25c

The roots are long and fibrous, making the hyacinth the finest plant to use in spawning fish. 2 for 25c; 6 for 50c.

Varieties marked with a (*) are particularly adapted to a depth of 6 to 12 inches.

Varieties marked with a (†) are suitable to plant at about 2 to 6 inches.

Varieties marked with a (‡) are plants that like wet feet but with crowns and stems preferring the air and sunlight.

Add A Bog Garden . . .

Water trickling gently along the rocky ledges, graceful green plants swaying in the breeze, here and there a splash of color from some blooming rock plant—these are the pleasures found in a Bog Garden.

The plants for this garden are varied—some unusual in foliage or bloom—beautiful beyond comparison, and altogether some of Nature's most magnificent specimens.

The little brook pictured on this page with its little inlets for plants that prefer wet feet, with pockets in its rocky sides for other plants, is a complete garden in itself.

These plants are excellent for this type of gardening.

Plants—That Produce OXYGEN...

PLANTS are the most important part of the Aquarium equipment. They keep the water constantly in good condition, because they release oxygen and on the other hand take up the carbon dioxide given off by the fish. Plants also serve as a natural refuge from too much sunlight. They are the first essential of an attractive and well balanced aquarium for their utility as well as their decorative value. It is because of the plants that you do not have to change the water in an aquarium.

All plants that come with roots such as Sagittaria, Vallisneria, Spatterdock, Cryptocoryne, should be planted in clean gravel. In that way they will grow and propagate. Anacharis, Cabomba, Ludwigia, and other bunched plants can be anchored gently in the sand, or for use in small goldfish globes they can be placed as received.

All of our plants are nursery grown or aquarium acclimated before shipping which means superior plants from a standpoint of quality and beauty.

Scavengers — for The AQUARIUM and POOL

Scavengers consume the excrements of the fish, in fact any and all refuse which they find in the aquarium, and thus keep the water clean and in excellent condition.
